1. In a sport where two officials are assigned, if one official does not show, the remaining official is paid 1.5 the fee.
2. Games officiated by one official should receive the full game fee plus half the fee, unless noted in the matrix above.
3. The fee for scrimmages in all sports except basketball is one half the officials fee for the level played. The maximum number of officials to be paid would be how many are used during a regular season game. In basketball, it is $20.00 per official with a maximum of five paid officials used per court.
4. Scrimmages are set to last 2 hours with a maximum of 2.5 hours. No matter how many teams participate during the 2.5 hour period.
5. Scheduling conflict fees should be approved by the individual school and the assignor of the sport dealing with the particular conflict.
Examples: Official shows up for an assigned game/match and the school does not have it on their schedule or teams(s) do not show for competition.
6. Note on Football- in the event that two football games are played back to back a full fee will be us for each
